I am very disappointed to find out that you did not indemnify Landlord or appear on Landlord's behalf today and the court will issue a default judgment against Landlord. Let me remind you that under the Lease Agreement which states:

Indemnification/Hold Harmless Tenant shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law and at its own cost and expense, defend, indemnify and hold Landlord its partners, directors, officers, employees, servants, representatives and agents harmless from and against any and all claims, loss, (including attorneys' fees, witnesses' fees and all court costs), damages, expense and liability (including statutory liability), resulting from injury and/or death of any person or damage to or loss of any property, or any lawsuit, arising out of any negligent or wrongful act, error or omission or breach of contract, in connection with the operations of Tenant except to the extent caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its employees, agents or contractors. The foregoing indemnity shall include injury or death of any employee of Tenant and shall not be limited in any way by an amount or type of damages, compensation or benefits payable under any applicable Workers Compensation, Disability Benefits or other similar employee benefits acts.

I will be seeking a vacatur of the default and any and all attorneys fees incurred by Landlord, Landlord shall seek to recover from Tenant.

You can send the appropriate paperwork for signature over to Barry Frank, Esq (Law Office of Barry Frank); his email is listed above, pdf or MSWord format is best.

I am following up on our previous conversation where we discussed your client taking over the defense of this action for all defendants and indemnifying the coop and its landlord. Please advise me if your client is willing to do so.
